

Jane Austen Birthday Gala — Saturday, December 10, 2016 —10 am-4 pm

Seven Hills Conference Center, SFSU
800 Font Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94132 (see our website for parking info)

Join the Northern California Region of JASNA in our annual salute to our favorite author!

Recover from your morning commute with a hearty breakfast at our deluxe cafeteria (10-10:30).

Then hear JASNA President Claire Bellanti's talk

"You Can Get A Parasol at Whitby's: Circulating Libraries in the Time of Jane Austen"

We'll hear short reports from those who went to the 2016 AGM and what is planned for the 2017 AGM, in Huntington Beach, California.

There will be time for nuncheon, our famous basket drawing, and other amusements. Time to meet others who share your passions, who may live in your corner of the Bay Area. Special treat: historic costume expert Lynn McMasters will bring some of her late Georgian & Regency head wear and prototypes for new patterns to display in our mercantile corner.

As always, we shall end with our day with cake and a toast to our inspiration, Miss Jane Austen.

Period attire is admired but not required. (Bring your parasol for photo ops!)

Updates & more on our website, www.jasnanorcal.org. Find us on Facebook, too!
